SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of : 10 years on Count 1 of the Indictment.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

- ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☒ The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
- ☐ The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record, personal history, or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

CASE NUMBER: 0862 5:15CR04012-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant must comply with the following special conditions as ordered by the Court and implemented by the United States Probation Office:

- 1) The defendant must participate in a mental health evaluation and/or treatment program. This may include participation in a sex offender treatment program or any such similar program offered in the defendant's approved district of residence. The defendant must take all medications prescribed to the defendant by a licensed psychiatrist or physician.
- 2) The defendant must not own or possess any pornographic materials. The defendant must not use any form of pornography or erotica nor enter any establishment where pornography or erotica can be obtained or viewed.
- 3) The defendant must not operate or use photographic equipment, a computer, or any electronic storage device to view or produce any form of pornography or erotica.
- 4) The defendant must not use the Internet to view any form of pornography or erotica via the World Wide Web, a commercial gateway, an Internet Service Provider, Internet Relay Chat channels, or any Internet Protocol address.
- 5) The defendant must not access an Internet connected computer or other electronic storage device with internet capabilities without the prior written approval of the United States Probation Office and based on a justified reason.
- 6) The defendant must not have contact with children under the age of 18 (including through letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, visits, electronic mail, the Internet, or any contact through a third party) without the prior written consent of the United States Probation Office. The United States Probation Office will work with the defendant and the defendant's family to set up supervised communications and visits with the defendant's biological and legally adopted children.
- 7) The defendant must not be present at places where minor children under the age of 18 are congregated, such as residences, parks, beaches, pools, daycare centers, playgrounds, and schools without the prior written consent of the United States Probation Office.
- 8) Any computer and/or electronic storage device the defendant owns or has access to will be subject to random or periodic unannounced monitoring by a United States Probation Officer. The monitoring will include examinations of the defendant's computer(s) equipment, the retrieval and copying of all data, and any internal or external peripherals, and/or removal of such equipment for inspection. The defendant must allow the United States Probation Office to install any hardware or software systems to monitor or filter the defendant's computer use. Prior to installation of any such hardware or software systems, the defendant must allow the United States Probation Office to examine the defendant's computer and/or electronic storage device.
- 9) The defendant must submit to a search of the defendant's person, residence, adjacent structures, office, computer, electronic storage device, or vehicle, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant must warn any other residents that the residence and vehicle, as well as any computers or electronic storage devices may be subject to search pursuant to this condition. This condition may be invoked with or without the assistance of law enforcement, including the United States Marshals Service.

Upon a finding of a violation of supervision, I understand the Court may: (1) revoke supervision; (2) extend the term of supervision; and/or (3) modify the condition of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
